INDEX TO VOLUME CXXIII.

Aberdeen, Lord, and the Queen, 204—divisions in his Cabinet, 216—relations with the Crown, 217.

Above the Clouds: A Reverie on the Bel Alp, 172—Swiss Alp and Scotch hillsides, 173—through the Dolomites, 174 et seq.—Cadore, Titian's country, 175—a bundle of books, 177—Froude's 'Short Studies,' ib.—'Thomas Davidson, the Scottish Probationer,' 178 et seq.—the parochial schools of Scotland, 181.

Adrianople, from Constantinople to, 194—evacuated by the Turks, 243—abandoned by the Turks, 371.

Alkamenês, his sculptures at Olympia, 554.

Alpine hares, 471.

Andrassy, Count, his views on the Eastern Question, 101—speech on Russia's demands, 515 et seq.

Andrassy Note, the, 760.

Apollo Epikourios, temple of, 558, 559.

Arctic current, the—its influence on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, 295.

Argos, visit to, 566.

Argyll, the Duke of, on British interests, 249—speech on the Treaty of Paris, 512.

Armour-plated vessels, 153 et seq.

Army reform, a new scheme of, 453 et seq.

Arnold, Edwin, The Epic of the Lion, by, 703.

'Art of being Easy at all Times and in all Places,' 73.

Asia, the winter campaign, 117—Russian position in, 367—progress of the war in, 227, 232, 355.

Austin, Miss, her descriptions of country-dances, 83.

Austria, her interests identical with those of Germany, 100—interest in the Eastern Question more direct than ours, 101—conduct in the Crimean war, 206—her dubious diplomacy, 214—interest in the peace stipulations, 390—views of the Treaty of San Stefano, 510—Court life of, 620—M. Mohl on, 745—Chrzanowski's opinions of, 746 et seq.—present situation, 773.

"Baccalaos," Newfoundland, 287.

Baker Pasha, his position at Kamerleh, 197 et seq.—brilliant retreat, 370.

Balkan provinces, the settlement of, 100.

Beaconsfield, Lord, the Queen's tribute to his conduct of the Opposition, 106—his explanations of our conditional neutrality, 375—speech on the San Stefano Treaty, 642.

Belle Isle, proposal to close the Straits of, 295.

Berlin Memorandum, the, 761.

Bessarabia, the retrocession of, 779.

'Bianconi, Charles: a Biography,' reviewed, 313.

Bill of Rights, the alleged violation, 775

Bismarck, Prince, his views of the Treaty of San Stefano, 510.

Black Mount, the, 472, 486.

Book education, incompleteness of, 78.

Breeding, decline of good, 88.

Bright, Mr., his violent advocacy of peace, 251.

Britain, Great, her position after Plevna, 99—limitations of her interests, 103—attempts at mediation in the East, 232—her stand upon the Treaty of Paris, 233, 380—her four great Eastern interests, 514—her steps to support the Treaty of Paris, 638—alleged isolation of, 767.

Brummel, Beau, his advice on dancing, 83.

Budget, the, 625—altered position of Chancellorship of Exchequer, 625—Mr. Gladstone's financial displays, 626—difficulties of the present Budget, 627—state of the revenue, 628 et seq.—the vote of credit, 630 et seq.—success of Sir Stafford Northcote's calculations, 633—comparative lightness of present taxation, 634.

Bulgaria, the new, 517.

"Bultow" or "trawl" fishing, 298.

Burg, the, at Vienna, 606, 608, 613.

Burgoyne, Sir J. F., on working-parties in the field, 501.

Cadore, Titian's birthplace, 175.

Canadian fisheries, 287 et seq.

Canso, Strait of, 290, 301.

Carnarvon, Lord, secedes from the Cabinet, 374—on the holding of the Dardanelles, 514.

'Carpathians, Round about the,' reviewed, 701.

Cars, Bianconi's Irish, 313.

Catholics, condition of the French, 56 et seq.

Cavalry still indispensable in war, 503.

INDEX TO VOLUME CXXIII.

Aberdeen, Lord, and the Queen, 204—divisions in his Cabinet, 216—relations with the Crown, 217.

Above the Clouds: A Reverie on the Bel Alp, 172—Swiss Alp and Scotch hillsides, 173—through the Dolomites, 174 et seq.—Cadore, Titian's country, 175—a bundle of books, 177—Froude's 'Short Studies,' ib.—'Thomas Davidson, the Scottish Probationer,' 178 et seq.—the parochial schools of Scotland, 181.

Adrianople, from Constantinople to, 194—evacuated by the Turks, 243—abandoned by the Turks, 371.

Alkamenês, his sculptures at Olympia, 554.

Alpine hares, 471.

Andrassy, Count, his views on the Eastern Question, 101—speech on Russia's demands, 515 et seq.

Andrassy Note, the, 760.

Apollo Epikourios, temple of, 558, 559.

Arctic current, the—its influence on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, 295.

Argos, visit to, 566.

Argyll, the Duke of, on British interests, 249—speech on the Treaty of Paris, 512.

Armour-plated vessels, 153 et seq.

Army reform, a new scheme of, 453 et seq.

Arnold, Edwin, The Epic of the Lion, by, 703.

'Art of being Easy at all Times and in all Places,' 73.

Asia, the winter campaign, 117—Russian position in, 367—progress of the war in, 227, 232, 355.

Austin, Miss, her descriptions of country-dances, 83.

Austria, her interests identical with those of Germany, 100—interest in the Eastern Question more direct than ours, 101—conduct in the Crimean war, 206—her dubious diplomacy, 214—interest in the peace stipulations, 390—views of the Treaty of San Stefano, 510—Court life of, 620—M. Mohl on, 745—Chrzanowski's opinions of, 746 et seq.—present situation, 773.

"Baccalaos," Newfoundland, 287.

Baker Pasha, his position at Kamerleh, 197 et seq.—brilliant retreat, 370.

Balkan provinces, the settlement of, 100.

Beaconsfield, Lord, the Queen's tribute to his conduct of the Opposition, 106—his explanations of our conditional neutrality, 375—speech on the San Stefano Treaty, 642.

Belle Isle, proposal to close the Straits of, 295.

Berlin Memorandum, the, 761.

Bessarabia, the retrocession of, 779.

'Bianconi, Charles: a Biography,' reviewed, 313.

Bill of Rights, the alleged violation, 775

Bismarck, Prince, his views of the Treaty of San Stefano, 510.

Black Mount, the, 472, 486.

Book education, incompleteness of, 78.

Breeding, decline of good, 88.

Bright, Mr., his violent advocacy of peace, 251.

Britain, Great, her position after Plevna, 99—limitations of her interests, 103—attempts at mediation in the East, 232—her stand upon the Treaty of Paris, 233, 380—her four great Eastern interests, 514—her steps to support the Treaty of Paris, 638—alleged isolation of, 767.

Brummel, Beau, his advice on dancing, 83.

Budget, the, 625—altered position of Chancellorship of Exchequer, 625—Mr. Gladstone's financial displays, 626—difficulties of the present Budget, 627—state of the revenue, 628 et seq.—the vote of credit, 630 et seq.—success of Sir Stafford Northcote's calculations, 633—comparative lightness of present taxation, 634.

Bulgaria, the new, 517.

"Bultow" or "trawl" fishing, 298.

Burg, the, at Vienna, 606, 608, 613.

Burgoyne, Sir J. F., on working-parties in the field, 501.

Cadore, Titian's birthplace, 175.

Canadian fisheries, 287 et seq.

Canso, Strait of, 290, 301.

Carnarvon, Lord, secedes from the Cabinet, 374—on the holding of the Dardanelles, 514.

'Carpathians, Round about the,' reviewed, 701.

Cars, Bianconi's Irish, 313.

Catholics, condition of the French, 56 et seq.

Cavalry still indispensable in war, 503.

Chakir Pasha opposes Gourko in the Balkans, 115—his command at Kamerleh, 198.
Chaleur, the Bay of, 293.
Chefket Pasha relieves Plevna, 366.
Childers, Mr., on the increase of the Estimates, 627—complains of the Budget, 633.
Chrzanowski, General, his conversations with Mr. Senior, 746.
Circumstantial evidence, a Tale of, 32.
'City of Sunshine, The,' reviewed, 323.
Civil Service, increased expense of, 627.
Civilisation, Russia's claims to, estimated, 354.
Cod-fisheries, 289, 294, 296.
Colquhoun, Mr. John, 'The Moor and the Loch' reviewed, 467 et seq.—Mr. Colquhoun's early experience, 467, 472—his love of nature, 486—the fifth edition of his book, 488.
Communion, influence of a first, in France, 66.
COMPANIONS ON THE ROAD, by W. W. S., 755.
Compassionate Fund, the, its operations in the war, 195, 196.
CONGRESS, THE EVE OF THE, 509.
Consistency of Ministers vindicated 758, et seq.
Consort, Life of the Prince, 105 et seq.
Constantinople, the possession of, 99—the situation in, 237.
Constitutional government, the Prince Consort's warning regarding, 218.
Corfu, the approach to, 550—the town of, ib.
Cousin, M. Victor, his conversations with Mr. Senior, 744.
Credit, the vote of, 381, 631 et seq.—debate on, 385.
Crosse, Mr. A. F., his 'Round about the Carpathians' reviewed, 701.
Cruisers, British Fishery, 288 et seq.
Curves of stability, 154.
Czar, the, receives Osman Pasha's sword, 120—witnesses assault on Plevna, 365.
Czarewitch, the, his engagement with Suleiman Pasha, 115.
Dance, the country, 82.
Danube, bridges over the, swept away, 227—the Russian crossing of, 358—the Turkish defence of, 497.
Dardanelles, our interests in, 102—despatch of the British fleet to, 374 et seq.—the possession of, 519.
Davidson, Thomas, a Scottish probationer, 178 et seq.
Debt, the national, its reduction, 634.
Deer-stalking, 476 et seq.
"Departure, the new," 759, 767.
De Quincey, his impressions of a State ball at Windsor, 81.
Derby, Lord, his reply to the Stratheden deputation, 98—his despatch of May 1877, 98—threatens secession from the Cabinet, 374—his definition of a casus belli, 378—criticism of the Salisbury Circular, 639—his resignation, 645, 775.
Deveboyun, battle of, 368.
'Dinnsenchus,' 545.
Disease, grouse, 481.
DOBSON AUSTIN, TO ETHEL, 508.
Dolomite country, a drive through the, 175.
DONNA CLARA, from Heine, 601.
'Dramaturgie,' Lessing's, 309.
Dream colours, 173.
Drouyn de Lhuys, his resignation, 215.
Duck-shooting, 474—ducks' acuteness in hearing, 475.
Earthworks, new mode of defence by, 503.
EAST, THE STORM IN THE, No. VIII., 109—No. IX., 235—No. X., retrospective, 353—No. XI., reflective, 489.
Elliot, Lady C., her 'Medusa, and other Poems' reviewed, 700.
'Emilia Galotti,' by Lessing, 308.
ENGLAND AND RUSSIA, 374—secession of Ministers, 375—consistency of our policy, ib.—our conditional neutrality, 379—our stand on the Treaty of Paris, 380—the vote of credit, 381—alarm of Opposition at Russia's advance, 384—fleet in the Bosphorus, 388—prospects of Congress, 389.
ENGLAND AND THE TREATY OF SAN STEFANO, 635—Russia's refusal to bring the Treaty into Congress, 636—Lord Derby's comment, ib.—Russian views of the Treaty, 637—Lord Salisbury's Circular, 638 et seq.—Lord Derby's criticisms on it, 639—Continental approval of the Circular, 640—the Russian answer, ib.—Lord Salisbury in the Foreign Office, 645—isolation of Russia, 648—import of Prince Gortschakoff's answer, 649—Russia's difficulties, 650—no Congress possible without England, 651.
EPIC OF THE LION, THE, by Edwin Arnold, C.S.I., 703.
ETHEL, TO, BY AUSTIN DOBSON, 508.
Etropol Balkans, Turkish retreat from, 230—Russian passage of, 369.
EVE OF THE CONGRESS, THE, 509—unanimous interests of the Powers, 510—Britain prepared to make reasonable concessions, 511—Lord Hammond on the situation, 513—the four great interests of England, 514—Count Andrassy's views, 515 et seq.—the new Bulgaria, 517—the question of the Straits, 518 et seq.—the admission of Greece, 520.
Exchequer, Chancellorship of, its exaggerated importance, 625.
FALL OF PLEVNA, THE: PEACE OR WAR? 97—the task of Great Britain, 98 et seq.—the prospects of peace, 100—Austria's direct interest in the Eastern Question, 101—Britain's confidence in the Ministry, 104—the Queen's approbation of Mr. Disraeli's conduct of the Opposition, 107—the meeting of Parliament, 108.
FASHION AND FANCY, 412.
Female education in the last century, 71.
Field-work, soldier's aversion to, 501.
FIRESIDE PIECE, A, from Heine, 599.
Fleet, the despatch of the, to the Dardanelles, 374, 378, et seq.
FOLLETT SYNGE, W. W.: A PATRIOT QUEEN, 219.
FOREIGN OPINION ON ENGLAND IN THE EAST, 734—perils of absolute monar-chies, ib.—character of the Czar, 735—Russia's difficulties, 736—machinery of agitation, 739—Mr. Nassau Senior's conversations, 741 et seq.—M. Thiers, ib. et seq.—Cousin, 743 et seq.—General Chrzanowski, 746 et seq.

Four points, the, of the Paris Conference, 214.

Francis Joseph, the Emperor of Austria, his character sketched, 621, 622—his wooing, 623.

FRASER, MURDER OF COMMISSIONER, DELHI, 1835, 32.

French fishery rights in North America, 296.

FRENCH HOME LIFE (second series), No. I., RELIGION, 53—varying influences of religion, ib.—its effects on the French temperament, ib. et seq.—collision of religious forces, 54—Ultramontanism, 55 et seq.—Catholic feelings, 56—the religion of women, 63—religion in the family, 66—influence of confessors, 68—No. II., THE INFLUENCE OF WOMEN, 328—imagination the root of woman's influence, 330—power of woman in France, 331—isolated position of the noblesse, 332—difference between Frenchwomen and Englishwomen, ib.—the Frenchwoman's faculty of adaptation, 333—her pre-eminence over the men, 335—the exercise of her influence, 338—her family life, 341 et seq.—her influence estimated, 343.

Froude's 'Short Studies,' 177.

Gallican religious spirit, the, 56.

GASCON O'DRISCOL, THE, BY THE AUTHOR OF "THE FORGING OF THE ANCHOR," 545.

Germany, attempts at mediation between England and Russia, 641.

Gladstone, Mr., his charges against Turkish rule, 106—pledges himself to obstruction, 382—resolves again to retire from public life, 506—decline of his political credit, 507—his Budget displays, 625—his promised abolition of the income-tax, 626—his neglect of the navy, 627—his "phantom fleet," ib.—his advocacy of a preliminary conference, 636—speech on the San Stefano Treaty, 643—contempt of club opinions, 753.

Glatton, the, its torpedo machinery, 161.

Goats, wild, a substitute for deer, 477 et seq.

Gortschakoff, Prince, his answer to Lord Derby's despatch, 98—his refusal to submit the Treaty of San Stefano to Congress, 509 et seq.—reply to the Salisbury Circular, 637, 649.

Gourko, General, renews his attempt to pass the Balkans, 112—captures the Schipka Pass, 360.

Grand Bank of Newfoundland, 293 et seq., 298.

Granville, Lord, carping speech on the Address, 253—conduct in opposition criticised, 743.

Greece, her invasion of Thessaly, 373—her admission to Congress, 520.

Grouse shooting, 481 et seq.—disease, ib.

Guizot, M., his conversations with Mr. Senior, 744 et seq.

H. H. K., A VISIT TO SOPHIA AND THE HEIGHTS OF KAMERLEH, BY, 194.

Halibut-fishing, 299, 302.

HALIFAX COMMISSION, THE NORTH AMERICAN FISHERIES AND THE, 287.

"Hamlet" in Greek, 553.

Hammond, Lord, speech on the Eastern crisis, 513.

Harcourt, Sir William, his scouting of British interests, 251.

Hardy, Mr. Gathorne, his Edinburgh speech, 124—challenges the Opposition to support its charges, 385.

Hartington, Lord, his advocacy of unconditional neutrality, 254.

Harvey torpedo, the, 160.

HAVE MINISTERS BEEN CONSISTENT? 758—the "new departure," 759—the four points of their policy, 760—the Andrassy Note, ib.—Berlin Memorandum, 761—the "atrocities," 763—warnings to Turkey, 765—alleged isolation, 767—forbearance towards Russia, 769 et seq.—consistency vindicated, 772.

HEINE, TRANSLATIONS FROM, BY THEODORE MARTIN, 89, 221, 426, 599.

Hertford, Lady, her patronage of Thomson, 73.

'Hinton, James, Life and Letters of,' reviewed, 681.

Hirschfel, Dr., director of the German excavations at Olympia, 552.

Hobart Pasha, his challenge to Mr. Reed, 166.

Hungarian Diet, debate in, 773 et seq.

Ignatieff, General, his ambiguous services, 743.

Income-tax, Mr. Gladstone's promised abolition of, 626—increase of, 682.

'Indian Garden, My,' reviewed, 698.

Indian troops, the movement of, 675.

INFLEXIBLE AND MR. REED, THE: IRONCLADS AND TORPEDOES, 153—seaworthiness of our ironclads, 154—the armour of the Inflexible, 156—committee appointed, 167—its report, 168—Mr. Reed's attack on the committee, 170.

INFLUENCE OF WOMEN, THE: FRENCH HOME LIFE, No. II., 328.

IRENE MACGILLICUDDY, THE TENDER RECOLLECTIONS OF, Part II., 39.

IRONCLADS AND TORPEDOES: THE INFLEXIBLE AND MR. REED, 153—the rivalry between guns and armour-plates, ib.—recent ships, 156 et seq.—the substitution of steel for iron, 159—torpedoes, 160 et seq.—past experience of naval warfare useless, 163—the Inflexible and Mr. Reed, 165—superiority of our vessels maintained, 171.

Isolation, alleged, of Britain, 767.

JOHN CALDIGATE, Part I., 391—Part II., 523—Part III., 713.

Joint High Commission, 291 et seq.

KAMERLEH, A VISIT TO SOPHIA AND THE HEIGHTS OF, CHRISTMAS 1877, 194.

Karahassan, battle of, 365.

Kars captured by the Russians, 369.

Kishengurh, Rajah of, 32, et seq.

Krüdener, General, his assaults on Plevna, 363.

Labrador fisheries, 288 et seq.
'Laokoon,' Lessing's, 309.
Lawrence, Lord, his enquiry into the murder of Mr. Fraser, 32 et seq.
'Legacy, A: being the Life and Remains of John Martin,' reviewed, 687.
'Lessing, his Life and Writings,' by J. Sime, reviewed, 305—his influence on German Literature, 305 et seq.
LIFE, A RIDE FOR, 182.
'Life in the Mofussil,' reviewed, 690.
LIFE OF THE PRINCE CONSORT, THE, 201.
Listening, the art of, 75.
LOCH, THE MOOR AND THE, 467.
Loftcha, actions at, 362, 363, 365.
Lom, Mehemet Ali's operations on the, 364.
Lowe, Mr., on the vote of credit, 383—his sensational budget, 626.
Mackerel-fisheries, 289, 294, 300, 303.
Maintenon, Madame de, strictures on female education, 71.
Marmolata, the Queen of the Dolomites, 175.
'Marmorne' reviewed, 320.
'Martin, John, Life and Remains of,' reviewed, 687.
Martin, Mr. Theodore, his 'Life of the Prince Consort,' Vol. III., 201 et seq.
MARTIN, MR. THEODORE: translations from Heine, 89, 221, 426, 599.
'Medusa, and other Poems,' by Lady Charlotte Elliot, reviewed, 700.
MEETING OF PARLIAMENT, THE, 245—Liberal suspicions of Government cleared away, 246—the Queen's Speech, 247—tactics of the Opposition, 252 et seq.—the objects of our policy, 255—negotiations between the belligerents, 256.
Mehemet Ali Pasha, his popularity with his troops, 195—organises force to relieve Plevna, 367.
Messina, Turkish transport captured by the Russians, 231.
Metcalfe, Mr. T., magistrate of Delhi, 32 et seq.
Michael, Grand Duke, his movements in Asia, 356.
Middle line bulkheads, 158.
Midhat Pasha, his account of the Mussulman fugitives, 244.
Milan of Servia, Prince, takes the field, 122.
MIND AND MANNERS, SCHOOLS OF, 70.
MINE IS THINE, Part VII., 1—Part VIII., 129—Part IX., 258—Part X., 434—Part XI., 571—Conclusion, 653.
'Minna von Barnhelm,' by Lessing, its influence, 308.
'Mofussil, Life in the,' reviewed, 690.
Mohl, M., on Austria, 745.
Moncrieff, Major, his system of gunnery, 158.
Montague, Lady Mary Wortley, 73, 81.
Montenegro, her attitude in the war, 355.
MOOR AND THE LOCH, THE: Mr. John Colquhoun, 467—innovations on sport, 468—encroachments of cultivation, 469 et seq.—extermination of birds of prey, 471—wild-fowl shooting, 473—duck-stalking, 474—seal-shooting, 475—deer-stalking, 476 et seq.—goat-shooting, 478 et seq.—roe battues, 479—roe stalking, 480—grouse-shooting, 481 et seq.—sheep-farmers and the game, 482—refreshments, 483—ptarmigan-shooting, ib.—fishing, 485.
Mukhtar Pasha, his position in Erzeroum, 117—his operations in Asia, 357—defeats the Russians, 367—receives rank of Gazi, 368—routed, ib.
MURDER OF COMMISSIONER FRASER, DELHI, 1835, 32.
Murray, Dr. Alexander, the philologist, 181.
'My Indian Garden' reviewed, 698.
Mycenæ, visit to, 567—excavations at, ib.
Napoleon III., his relations with the Prince Consort, 211 et seq.—his visit to Windsor, 212.
'Nathan the Wise,' by Lessing, 308.
Nedjib Pasha, retreats from Etropol Balkans, 230.
Needlework, principal accomplishment of a lady in the last century, 72.
NEW BOOKS, 305—'Lessing: his Life and Writings,' by J. Sime, ib.—'Charles Bianconi: a Biography,' by Mrs. Morgan John O'Connell, 313—'North Italian Folks,' by Mrs. Comyns Carr, 319—'Marmorne,' 320—'The City of Sunshine,' by Alexander Allardyce, 323—'Life and Letters of James Hinton,' by Ellice Hopkins, 681—'A Legacy: being the Life and Remains of John Martin,' 687—'Life in the Mofussil,' 690—'My Indian Garden,' by Phil Robinson, 698—'Medusa, and other Poems,' by Lady Charlotte Elliot, 700—'Round about the Carpathians,' by A. F. Crosse, 701.
Nicholas, the Emperor, English dislike of, 203.
Nicholas, Grand Duke, his command in Bulgaria, 359—makes Adrianople his headquarters, 371.
NORTH AMERICAN FISHERIES AND THE HALIFAX COMMISSION, THE, 287—historical sketch of the fisheries, ib.—collisions between Yankee and Canadian fishermen, 290—the Joint High Commission, 292 et seq.—the North American fishing-grounds, 293—the Arctic current, 294—Newfoundland cod-fishery, 296—the Grand Banks, 298—results of the arbitration, 303 et all fin.
'North Italian Folks,' by Mrs. Comyns Carr, reviewed, 319.
Northcote, Sir Stafford, his speech on the Address, 250—on our conditional neutrality, 379—his success as a financier, 627, 633.
O'Connell, anecdotes of, 318.
O'DRISCOL, THE GASCON, 545.
Olympia, the excavations at, 554, 555.
"ONLY JEAN," 344.
Onou, M., the Russian dragoman, his views of the Treaty, 637, 736.
Opposition, the, Prince Consort on the conduct of, 106—confused character of its policy, 252—alarm at the advance of Russia, 384.

Osman Pasha's final efforts, 113—drives the Russians out of Plevna, 360—his defence, 362—raised to the rank of Gazi, 366—surrenders, 367.
Outrigger torpedo, the, 160.
Paiôn'os, sculptures by, at Olympia, 555.
Palmerston, Lord, his spirit and sagacity in the Crimean war, 201—his dismissal, 210, 216.
Paris, Treaty of, its influence on British policy, 377.
PARLIAMENT, THE MEETING OF, 245.
Parochial schools of Scotland, 181.
PATRIOT QUEEN, A, BY W. W. FOLLETT SYNGE, 219.
PEACE OR WAR? THE FALL OF PLEVNA, 97.
Peace Party, the English, its antipathy to Turkey explained, 495.
PELOPONNESE, A RIDE ACROSS THE, 550.
Peter the Great, the, Mr Reed's estimate of, 165—break-down of, 166.
Phidias, his statue of Zeus at Olympia, 555.
Pilgram, Maitre, the architect of St. Stephen's, Vienna, 615.
Plevna, consequences of the fall of, 98 et seq.—grand assault on, 365—relieved by Chefket Pasha, 366.
POLITICAL SUSPENSE, 773—Austro-Hungary's situation, ib.—the movement of Indian troops, 775—the constitutional question, 776 et seq.—Russian difficulties, 778—the question of Roumania, 779.
Popoffkas, the, Mr Reed's scare about, 166.
PRINCE CONSORT, THE LIFE OF THE, 201—influence of the Prince Consort in uniting Crown and people, 202—his conviction of the Czar's dishonesty, 204—the Queen's vindication of the justness of the Crimean war, ib.—the Prince's administrative labours, 205—the Queen's anxiety about Sebastopol, 209—the French alliance, 210—royal visits, 211—his efforts to secure union in the Cabinet, 215—personal relations with Ministers, 217.
'Probationer, the Life of a Scottish,' 178 et seq.
Ptarmigan-shooting, 483, 484.
Purchase, the abolition of, its large addition to the Army Estimates, 627.
Radicals, religious feelings of French, 66.
Raglan, Lord, outcry against, 207.
Ramparts, their value in the field, 501.
Reciprocity Treaty, the, 289, 291.
Red Crescent ambulance, 195 et seq.
Reed, Mr., his bitter hostility to the Admiralty, 165—his panic about the Popoffkas, 166—statements challenged by Hobart Pasha, 167—his refusal to attend the Inflexible committee, 167.
Reelig, the Frasers of, 32.
Reid, Sir William, his advocacy of earthworks in the field, 500.
RELIGION: FRENCH HOME LIFE, No. I., 53.
Reouf Pasha, his defence of the Balkans, 362.
"Responsabilités, Les," 739.
RIDE ACROSS THE PELOPONNESE, A, I., The approach to Greece, 550—II., Olympia, 552—III., Bassæ, 556—IV., Megalopolis, Tripolitza, and Tegea, 560—V., Argos and Mycenæ, 565—VI., Tiryns and Nauplia, 568.
RIDE FOR LIFE, A, 182.
Ring, the, in Vienna, 612.
Roebuck, Mr., on party spirit, 234.
Roe-shooting, 480.
Roumania, Russian invasion of, 355—Turkish relations to, 497—present situation of, 779.
Roumanians occupy Lom Palanka, 113—allowed to participate in the war, 265—Chrzanowski's sweeping condemnation of, 746 et seq.
Russia, difficulties of her situation after Plevna, 102—neglect of her communications, 227—passage of the Balkans, 230 et seq.—Schipka Pass captured, 235 et seq.—Trojan Pass taken, 236—her descent into Roumelia, 238 et seq.—her professed desire for an armistice, 240—her advance to Adrianople, 243—her claims to civilisation estimated, 354—Imperial Guard put in the field, 364—her advance on the Bosphorus, 374—determined character of her aggression, 498—errors in management of the campaign, 499—objects of the war, 500—her refusal to submit Treaty to Congress, 636—answer to the Salisbury Circular, 640—her absolute isolation, 648—her self-made difficulties, 651, 758—M. Thiers on, 742 et seq.—General Chrzanowski's views of, 746 et seq.
Salisbury, Lord, his Circular, 636, 638 et seq., 648—his defence of the Ministerial policy, 249.
Salmo-ferox, the, 484.
San Stefano, the Treaty of the European press on, 650 et seq.—its submission to Congress, 509 et seq.—publication of the Treaty a new phase in Eastern Question, 635—the 'Times' on, 647.
Sartorius, Sir George, his recommendation of torpedo-rams, 162.
Schipka Pass captured, 235 et seq., 238—the struggle in the, a blunder, 497.
SCHOOLS OF MIND AND MANNERS, 70—needlework and good carriage, 72—dancing, 74—manners, 75—the art of listening, ib.—the apprehension of society, 78—the use of recreation, 80—the country-dance, 82—deportment, 84—school life in the last century, ib.—decline of high breeding, 88.
Seal-shooting, 475.
Sebastopol, resolution to destroy, 205—slow progress of the siege, 206.
Secession, the American, its effects on the fishery question, 288 et seq.
Senior, Mr. Nassau, his political conversations, 741 et seq.
Servia, movements of her army, 228 et seq.—Nisch taken, 235—her attitude in the war, 355.

Shah and the Huascar engagement, the, 161.
Sheep-farmers and the game, 482.
Sherwood, Mrs., her description of school discipline, 84.
Ships of war, their construction and equipment, 153 — modern armaments, 156 et seq.—"middle line bulkhead," 158.
Shumshoodeen Khan, the Nawab, his plot to murder Mr. Fraser, 33 et seq.—his trial and execution, 38.
Sime's, Mr. J., 'Lessing, his Life and Writings,' reviewed, 305.
SLAVE SHIP, THE, from Heine, 430.
Sophia, condition of the town in war time, 196—Russian advance upon, 370.
'Spectator,' the, on the education of ladies, 71.
Speculation, results of, in Vienna, 609 et seq.
Sport, change in the character of, 468.
Squid-fishing, 297.
St. Lawrence, the Gulf of, fishing in, 288 et seq.
Steel, use of, in shipbuilding, 159.
Stinchar, fishing on the, 485.
Stockmar, Baron, the Prince Consort's letters to, 203—his opinion of Napoleon III., 212.
"Stock-im-Eisen," Vienna Legend of, 616.
STORM IN THE EAST, THE, No. VIII., 109 — deputations to Ministers, 110 — Osman Pasha's defence, 113—passage of the Etropol Balkans, 114—Suleiman's Pasha's efforts, 115 et seq. — movements in Asia, 117—surrender of Osman Pasha, 118—Servia takes the field, 122—failure of Suleiman Pasha, ib.—the Czar and the war, 128—No. IX., 225—presumed isolation of England, ib.—winter in the theatre of war, 227,—Russian neglect of communications, 228—operations of the Servians, ib.—the position south of the Balkans, 231 — advantages of our independent action, 233 — capture of the Schipka Pass, 235, 238—capture of the Trojan Pass, 236 — meeting of the Turkish Parliament, 237 — Russian advance in Roumelia, 239—meeting of the British Parliament, 240 et seq. — the Queen's Speech, 241—the defence of Constantinople, 244—No. X., RETROSPECTIVE, 353—the brutality of war unmitigated, ib.—Russia's boast of civilisation unsustained, 354 — opening of the campaign, 355—war in Asia, 356—the passage of the Danube, 359—the capture of the Schipka Pass, 360—the operations about Plevna, ib.—battle of Karahassan, 365 — the assault on Plevna, ib. et seq. — Mukhtar Pasha defeated, 368—fall of Plevna, 369—passage of the Balkans, ib.—Russian occupation of Roumelia, 371—the armistice, 372 —the basis of peace, ib. — No. XI., REFLECTIVE, 489—retrospect of Turkish history, ib. et seq.—present deterioration of the Turks considered, 493—their uniform failure in the campaign, 497—moral of their story, ib.—Russia's preparations for aggression, 498—philanthropic pretences belied by her past history, 499—real object of the war, 500—importance of trench-work, ib.—ramparts, 501—effects of the rifle, 502.
St. Stephen's at Vienna, 614 — legend connected with, 615.
Stratford de Redcliffe, Lord, his view of the Eastern difficulty, 256.
Stratheden, Lord, his deputation on the Eastern Question, 98.
Suleiman Pasha, his attempts to avert the fall of Plevna, 114—efforts to save Adrianople, 239 — engages Russians near Pyrgos, 367.
Swift, his complaints of the ignorance of women, 72.
TANTALUS, by W. W. S., 757.
Tchekmedjia lines, the, 194—a neutral zone, 385.
TENDER RECOLLECTIONS OF IRENE MACGILLICUDDY, THE, Part II., 39.
Thiers, M., his conversation with Mr. Senior, 741.
Tissot, M. Victor, his 'Vienne et la Vie Viennoise' reviewed, 603.
Torpedoes, provision against, in ships of war, 159 — different kinds of, 160 — questionable utility of, 162.
Towing torpedo, the, 160.
TRANSLATIONS FROM HEINE, BY THEODORE MARTIN, 89, 221, 426, 599.
"Trawling," American, 298.
TREATY OF SAN STEFANO, ENGLAND AND THE, 635.
Trench-work, importance of, in the field, 500 et seq.—training soldiers for, 503.
Trojan Pass taken by the Russians, 236, 370.
Turks, consequences of the fall of Plevna, 121 et seq.—meeting of Ottoman Parliament, 126—retreat from the Etropol Balkans, 229 et seq.—apply for an armistice on the advice of England, 235 —misuse of their opportunities in Asia, 357 — retire to Biela, 359 — consternation at Gourko's successes, 361—battle of Karahassan, 365—fall of Plevna, 367 — successes in Asia, ib. — routed in Armenia, 368—fall back on the capital, 370—obtain an armistice, 372 — effect of their collapse on British interests, 380 — retrospect of their history, 490 — their weakness their chief crime, 495 — imperfections of their defence, 496.
Vertical fire, its probable adoption as a counter-agent to the enfilade, 503.
VIENNA AND VIENNESE LIFE, M. Tissot's 'Vienna et la Vie Viennoise,' 603—social attractions of Vienna, ib. et seq.—architectural changes, 609 — collapse of the speculative mania, 610—the Emperor's palace, 613 — legend of St. Stephen's, 615 — the Stock-im-Eisen, 616—Vienna not a German town, 618 — the Emperor's wooing, 623 — the press, 624.
VISIT TO SOPHIA AND THE HEIGHTS OF KAMERLEH, A, CHRISTMAS 1877, 194 —from Constantinople to Adrianople,

ib. et seq. — condition of Sophia, 196 — Kamerieh, 197 — sufferings of the soldiers, ib.—Baker Pasha, 198—heroism of Turkish soldiers, 200.
Ultramontanism in France, 55 et seq.
Unyah Meo, an accomplice in the murder of Mr. Fraser, 36 et seq.
Waltz, the introduction of the, 83.
Washington, Treaty of, 287.
Wassil Khan, the murderer of Mr. Fraser, 35 et seq.
Whitehead torpedo, the, 160, 161.
Wild-fowl shooting, 473.
Wordsworth, local scenery of his poems, 173—proverbs from, 174.
W. W. S.: COMPANIONS ON THE ROAD, 755: TANTALUS, 757.
Zeus, temple of, at Olympia, 554.